ILLINOIS VOTES ON LOCAL OPTION QUESTION TODAY

Many Counties Will Decide to Abolish or Retain Licensed Saloons

Michigan Held Election Yesterday With Mixed Results.

CONTESTS FOR CITY OFFICES

Springfield, Ill., April 7.—Rain is general throughout the state and will continue so all day. Local option elections are being held in all except nine cities. Three thousand saloons are affected.

Detroit, April 7.—Prohibition won nine out of the 14 counties, in which the liquor question was submitted at the polls yesterday.

Chicago, April 7.—The fate of three thousand saloons in eighty-four counties in Illinois will be determined today. It will be the first trial of the local option law in counties embracing township organization. Last November in sixteen counties, which retained the older form of county government, local option elections were held, and the anti-saloon forces had their first taste of victory. Saloons were abolished in six counties and in nine others the city or village lying within a precinct voted to continue the saloon, all other precincts in each county voting "dry."

This made nineteen counties in the state in which saloons existed in but one city or village of each county. The ten counties in which this condition prevailed previous to the November election, to vote on the question of abolishing the dram shop. In all districts where the saloons are the issue the law provides that the people shall not vote on the question again for two years.

Provisions of the statute forbid not only the operation of saloons, but also the delivery of bottled goods to houses in the territory carried by the local option forces. Saloon keepers are given thirty days after the election in which time to dispose of their stocks. The law has been attacked, and a case involving its constitutionality is pending in the supreme court of this state.

The finish of the campaign was attended by spectacular features, which have marked it from the beginning. This was especially true in Bloomington, where several thousand women and children paraded the streets in an effort to induce voters to cast ballots against the saloons.

Although Chicago, as a city, will not be called upon to vote on the question, the residents will have an opportunity to cast ballots for or against the saloons. They reside in the extreme northwest corner of the city, where the township of Maine extends over the city line for a few rods.

The only cities in Illinois, besides Chicago, that do not vote on the saloon question are Peoria, Quincy, East St. Louis, Streator, Ottawa, Jacksonville, LaSalle and Galena.

Result in Michigan.

Detroit, Mich., April 7.—Indications are that yesterday's election added nine more counties to the Michigan dry column. As Van Buren was the only county heretofore "dry," the total of local option counties becomes ten. Of the fourteen counties where prohibition made a campaign, Kalamazoo, Cass, Gladwin, Osceola and Oakland voted against local option.

In the Midland country, fifteen out of twenty-three precincts gave a majority in favor of local option. The "wets" carried St. Joseph, Clinton, Barry, Wexford, Gratiot, Missaukee, Grand Traverse and Oceana counties.

At Grand Rapids, George B. Ellis, Republican, was elected mayor, and F. H. Hiham, Democrat, was elected mayor of Kalamazoo. John Campbell, Democrat, elected mayor of Muskegon, George R. Herklimer, Democrat, elected mayor of Dowagiac.

In Tuscola county, where the vote was on accepting the primary laws, there was a fight between Governor Warner in favor of the primary and T. P. Atwood, former state railroad commissioner, opposed. Indications are that Warner won by a slight majority.

Later returns from Tuscola county show a majority of 861 for the direct nomination system. At Flint, Genesee county, George E. McKinley, representing the "drys," was defeated for mayor by H. C. Spencer, and in Owosso, Saginaw county, Wallace D. Burke, a saloon keeper was elected mayor, defeating Stanley E. Parkhill.

Cropper Night Riders Demand Two-Thirds, Instead of One-Half, as Their Share in Three Counties

Planters Who Dumped Crops, Warned to Leave Kentucky in Ten Days—Barn Near Augusta is Burned.

Louisville, Ky., April 7.—(Special.)—"Croppers" of Union, Henderson and Webster counties are demanding two-thirds of the tobacco and corn crops as their share, instead of the one-half, as they formerly received. Night riding methods have been adopted to force compliance with their demand.

Must Leave State.
Harrodsburg, Ky., April 7.—(Special.)—K. E. Crossfield received a letter signed "N. R." ordering him to leave the state in ten days. He is a member of the Burley Tobacco society, but sold his tobacco outside the pool. He says he will stay and defend himself. Other farmers in the Salvisa neighborhood are threatened, and some are preparing to leave the state.

Tobacco Barn Burned.
Augusta, Ky., April 7.—(Special.)—Twenty-five night riders burned the tobacco barn of S. W. McKibben here, containing 10,000 pounds belonging to Caleb Atherton, who refused to pool his crop.

Many Are Leaving.
Salvisa, Ky., April 7.—(Special.)—Farmers are greatly alarmed and many are preparing to leave as the result of warnings of night riders to go on account of selling their pooled tobacco.

TO HEAR PARDON CASES

Frankfort, Ky., April 7.—(Special.)—Governor Wilson set Thursday to hear applications for Powers' and Howards' pardons.

DISPENSARY MAY BE EQUIPPED FOR CITY

It is possible that a dispensary will be established at Riverside hospital, as the finance committee of the general council has called the attention of the hospital board to the large bills for drugs sent in from various drug stores. Laundry bills also have caused the finance committee some consternation. One or two other city departments, it is claimed, are running up expenses that threaten a deficit in their budgets.

TAFT HAS MORE THAN SIXTY PERCENT OF DELEGATES TO NAT'L CONVENTION

How Conventions Resulted Outside Favorite Son States Last Week.

Columbus, O., April 7.—When reports had been received at Taft national headquarters here of the delegates selected to the national Republican convention including Friday, the following statement was issued:

"In the past week only six delegates were selected outside 'favorite son' states. West Virginia entered the list of states without candidates of their own in which action has been taken when the third district convention at Hinton endorsed Secretary Taft and unanimously instructed two delegates for him. Of the six delegates elected in 'open' territory during the week, four were instructed for Secretary Taft and two, from Porto Rico, were uninstructed. In addition, two Taft instructed delegates were elected in the First Illinois (Chicago) district. Virginia and Ohio contributed four more instructed Taft delegates.

"Other delegates elected during the week were 18 in Illinois, instructed for Speaker Cannon; the four delegates-at-large from Indiana, instructed for Vice President Fairbanks, and four from the Buffalo, New York, districts, instructed for Governor Hughes. The last are the first delegates elected from New York.

"Of the 300 delegates now elected, 202 or 67 per cent, are instructed for Secretary Taft. Thirty of the remaining delegates are uninstructed, but one of the Democratic leaders of the state, John H. Kirk, a Democrat, who had the support of the liquor dealers, was elected mayor of Ypsilanti.

FARMERS FEAR TO DELIVER CROP TO TOBACCO BUYERS

Murray, Ky., April 7. (Special.)—About 50 farmers of Calloway county who have contracted to deliver their tobacco to the independent buyers but are afraid to deliver their crop on account of the intimidation of night riders, are facing financial loss in the shape of civil suits for breach of contract, if they fail to deliver their tobacco before May 1, which is the time specified for all tobacco deliveries.

Practically all of the farmers who have their tobacco on hand have been notified not to deliver to independent dealers, but upon application to the buyers have been refused a return of their contracts. All the independent buyers have worked up their purchases that have been received, and shipped them to New York and other places to be prepared for export, and the crews at the rehandling houses are simply waiting for something to do. The presence of soldiers patrolling the rural districts has had the effect of allaying fears of any trouble at present, and it is believed that if indictments are returned by the grand jury, which meets Monday, against the perpetrators of outrages committed before the arrival of the soldiers, the work of restoring law and order in the county will have been practically completed, but until then it is not believed that a majority of the farmers, who now fear to deliver their tobacco according to contract, will do so until the last vestige of danger of molestation afterwards is removed.

GERMANS PROSPECTING

Joseph Potosnick and Leslie Johns, Germans from Berlin, have arrived in Paducah to investigate farming conditions, and possibly join the German colony near this city. They will be followed by a party of 16 or 18 in a few weeks, it is said.

HADLEY NOT CANDIDATE

Jefferson City, April 7.—Attorney General Hadley issued a statement today, declining to be a candidate for governor on the Republican ticket, because his physicians say the state campaign would seriously impair his health.

SOLICITOR ASKS COUNCIL TO PASS GOOD FRANCHISE

Thinks it Necessary in City's Litigation With East Tennessee Company.

Wants One With Reasonable Terms in His Fight.

COMPANY MAY ACCEPT THIS

City Solicitor Campbell has made another proposal to the general council for a franchise ordinance for the East Tennessee Telephone company, which, he says, is necessary in the litigation between the city and the company, and this time the lower board has instructed its committee to bring in such an ordinance.

The whole controversy between the city and the company rests ultimately on the question of rates, and it is suspected, while Mr. Campbell expects after this franchise is offered for sale to use it in the suit, alleging thereupon that a reasonable franchise has been offered the company, that the company will purchase the franchise and thus end the trouble.

According to the terms, which Mr. Campbell expects to embody in the franchise, the company will be allowed to charge $2.50 for residence and $1 for business phones up to 4,000 subscribers, and after that for every additional thousand subscribers, or fraction thereof to charge an additional 50 cents for business phones and 25 cents for residence phones.

Mr. Campbell said the disagreement between the city and the company was that the latter wished to make the additional charge after it had 3,000 subscribers.

Attorney Hal Corbett, who is employed by the city to assist Mr. Campbell in the suit, is of the opinion that the city will win her contention, anyway; but Mr. Campbell is inclined to think it necessary to offer a reasonable franchise to the company, and his study of the situation leads him to believe that the terms he proposes are reasonable.

When the city offered the East Tennessee company a franchise similar to that of the Home company, Mr. Campbell paid no attention, as he frankly declared, that such a franchise would not be considered reasonable, after a court had made investigation of the cost of maintaining an exchange and the original investment.

A proposition of Councilman Al Young that one or more ordinances of the same kind be put up for sale, so that the Home company would have a chance to bid on a franchise of the same liberal terms offered the East Tennessee company, was defeated last night.

TWO ARE HANGED

Philadelphia, April 7.—Max Sofer and Joseph Raleco were hanged on the same scaffold at the state prison today. Sofer killed his sweetheart and Raleco murdered a man.

Raleco sobbed and was screaming until the noose cut short his cries in the death agony. Thousands of foreigners stormed the prison gates while the hanging was in progress. The execution was one of the most horrible ever witnessed.

CITY'S WASTE IS TO BE CHECKED BY NEW DEPARTMENT

It is probable that whoever Paducah's city buyer may be, if the aldermen concur in the councilmanic resolution, he will have his office with Street Inspector E. E. Bell. Mayor Smith is given the power of appointment and a systematic method of buying supplies for all the city departments will be inaugurated. Perhaps some things will be bought in quantities and stored until wanted. Other things, such as hay, will be bought in large quantities and distributed to all departments instead of allowing the street department to purchase some, the pest house keeper to purchase his own and the police and fire department their own. In some instances as high as $18 has been paid for hay, that could be got for much less. Departments have purchased chairs when the city has stacks of them captured in raids. The city buys more than $50,000 worth of material a year, and it is believed that $5,000 easily is wasted.

Stoney Ferguson Was in Paducah, But Did Not Respond When Name Was Called in Circuit Court Today

DETECTIVE SHOT BY ANARCHIST HE TRIES TO ARREST

Aguilar, Col., April 7.—Tony Shelby, a detective, was shot and killed early today by Frank Cartanas, whom he was trying to arrest as an anarchist suspect. Cartanas escaped. It is believed a lynching will follow his recapture.

BANK SAFE BLOWN BY ROBBERS WHO TAKE $6,000 AWAY

Huron, Kas., April 7.—The safe in the Bank of Huron was blown open by robbers early today and $6,000 taken. The men made their escape on a hand-car with citizens, who were awakened by the explosions, following on foot and shooting.

Two suspects were arrested at Topeka. Six men drilled through a brick wall and then blew the interior of the safe. The citizens fired on didn't leave their homes until the men departed. The sheriff left for Horton with a posse.

OFFICERS ARRIVE AT MURRAY TODAY FOR CONFERENCE

Murray, Ky., April 7.—(Special.)—Two officers arrived from Hopkinsville today and are in close consultation with the county authorities. It is generally believed they are conferring in regard to summoning witnesses before the grand jury next week and making plans to protect the grand jurors and witnesses; but not a word regarding their intentions has leaked out.

PAY DAY APRIL 16

Railroad officials at Paducah received notice today that the Illinois Central pay car would reach here Thursday, April 16, to pay the local employees. The pay roll for March will be up to the average of any month since Christmas, for while the number of employees has been reduced materially the force has lost little time, the locomotive department at the shops working full time, and the car department losing only two days during the month.

100 SICK SAILORS

Washington, April 7.—The hospital ship relief left Magdalena bay today for Mare Island with 100 sick aboard.

Twenty People Injured.

Chicago, April 7.—Twenty persons were injured when a south side elevated car jumped the track and pitched headlong to the street below. The passengers were thrown to the lower end.

FOR BENNETT MURDER

Clarksville, Tenn., April 7.—(Special.)—John Gardner and Walter Hunt, charged with complicity in killing Vaughn Bennett, surrendered.

WOMAN WATCHING FIRE AT KUTTAWA FALLS OVER DEAD

Kuttawa, Ky., April 7.—(Special.)—Fire destroyed Ike Marshall's livery stable and the Southern Stove company's plant last night with a loss of $3,500. Mrs. Augusta Whittington, an aged woman, while watching the fire, was overcome with heart failure and died.

CRIMINAL COURT SESSION BEGINS WITH PETIT JURY

Several Minor Criminal Cases Disposed of by Judge Reed Today

Two Sentenced to Penitentiary For Thefts.

NAMES OF THE PETIT JURORS

After empaneling the petit jury in the criminal division of circuit court this morning Judge Reed began trying the charges against prisoners already in jail under indictment.

The first cases disposed of were those of Mose Vaughan and James Tucker, colored, charged with attempting to rob Herbert Blackburn, a steam boat fireman. Mose Vaughan pleaded guilty to the charge against him and was given one year in the penitentiary by agreement of the prosecuting attorney. Tucker demanded trial, and after the evidence was heard the jury returned a verdict of guilty and gave him 18 months in the pen.

The prosecution failed to make out a case against Steve O'Conner and Joe McLain charged with stealing iron from the Riclesberger mill and selling it to the Jackson foundry, and they were dismissed from custody at the instance of the prosecuting attorney. The evidence showed that Jackson bought the iron from a man who O'Conner and McLain claimed employed them to help wreck the boilers at the Riclesberger mill, and haul the iron to the foundry.

Mary Hill, Ida Williams, Lizzie Oisby and Lizzie Jenkins, negro women charged with robbing Cornelia Reed's house on Washington street, were acquitted, while Nannie Gray, arraigned for the same offense, was sentenced to the penitentiary for three years.

The charge against Lucy Tindel for malicious shooting was fled away. Charles Briggeman was fined $50 on a malicious shooting charge.

Tom Baker was fined $20 for gaming and Harry Smith, tried on a similar charge, acquitted.

The murder charge against Stoney Ferguson was continued.

The Alex Wade murder case was called this afternoon but may be rescheduled until a later day in the term on account of absent witnesses.

The Jurors.
The petit jurors are: R. L. Nelson, J. M. McKinney, J. T. Flowers, C. W. Morrison, W. H. Farley, J. T. Armstrong, Fritz Beyer, James Johnson, J. C. Dismukes, T. B. Chiles, S. J. Billington, W. J. Koch, H. C. Hines, J. M. Frazier, Thomas Clayton, W. T. Smith, V. J. Harris, C. G. Acker, J. B. Watson, J. E. Brockman, S. W. Bell, James Bottom, H. J. Boldry, J. S. Hunt, R. C. Mansfield, E. B. Richardson, J. T. Bishop, James A. Lane, M. L. Bryan, T. L. Darnell.

Emma Goldman Detained.

Minneapolis, Minn., April 7.—Emma Goldman, the anarchist, was turned back at the boundary line at Noyes today by the federal immigration officials. She will be held at Winnipeg until she can prove she is a citizen of the United States.

Congressman Brick Dies.
Indianapolis, April 7.—Abraham Lincoln Brick, the South Bend congressman, died here today in a sanitarium.

KILLS WIFE WITH AX

Clarksville, Tenn., April 7.—Anderson Jefferson is in jail charged with wife murder. While she slept at their home near Guthrie it is alleged he split her head with an ax, almost severing her head from her body, and afterwards cut her throat. Jealousy is the supposed cause. He appears to be insane.

PRINCE HELIE IS JUBILANT TODAY OVER PROSPECTS

New York, April 7.—Through Mrs. George Gould's intervention, it is reported the family opposition to the proposed marriage of Anna Gould to Prince Helie, has practically disappeared. George Gould alone is said to be withholding his consent. The arrangements were discussed at a family dinner last night. Prince Helie is jubilant today.

Slayer of Gus Morris Was Seen on Street and Recognized—He Admitted His Identity to Two People Friday.

Contrary to the expectations of his friends, Stoney Ferguson did not answer in circuit court this morning when the case, charging him with murder was called, and although it is known that Ferguson was in Paducah last Friday and Saturday and possibly Sunday, it is supposed that he decided not to face the charge against him at this time.

Information regarding the movements of Ferguson was received by the officials today and that he was here at the time stated is positively known, as he was seen and recognized by several reliable citizens who conversed with him.

Friday morning about 7 o'clock he appeared at the office of the Kentucky Printing office, opposite the sheriff's office on South Fourth street, and inquired for his son, Zel Ferguson, who was formerly employed there. He stated that he was the father of the lad and that the last he heard of him he was working at that place. Mr. Johnson, the proprietor of the shop and Mr. Dodd, foreman, talked with him some time. Neither was personally acquainted with him and they did not realize until several hours after he had gone that they had in their power a man on whose head there was a price of $200. Other reputable citizens who knew Ferguson personally, met him in the vicinity of Seventh and Trimble streets. Every one seeing him says that he was poorly dressed and had a several weeks' growth of beard on his face. As far as learned the only time he admitted his identity was at the printing office, where he inquired for his son.

Since Ferguson failed to surrender to the authorities, his friends are at a loss to account for his visit to the city. His family and friends have stated on numerous occasions that he would return at the proper time and stand trial.

Stoney Ferguson killed Gus Morris about one year ago, by stabbing him in the neck with a log knife. The trouble was caused by a remark Morris made when Ferguson brushed against May Gordon, a woman with whom Morris was in company. Ferguson made his escape and has never been captured.

It has been rumored that he was in the government service in Panama, but he was never located there by the officers.

Ferguson's family moved to Murray soon after the killing. Commonwealth's Attorney John G. Lovett said this morning that no one had ever mentioned to him that Ferguson intended surrendering and he was surprised to learn that Ferguson had been in the city.

PORTUGAL QUIET OUTSIDE LISBON AFTER ELECTION

Washington, April 7.—The state department received the following from Minister Bryan, at Lisbon: "Monarchists were overwhelmingly victorious in the elections. The disorders are confined to Lisbon. The rest of Portugal is quiet."

ANOTHER REBATE FINE

New York, April 7.—The Great Northern Railway company was found guilty of granting rebates to the American Sugar Refining company in the federal court today. The fine will be imposed later.

TOM LAWSON SUED

Boston, April 7.—John F. Domahue, politician and business man, sued Thomas W. Lawson for $25,000. He recites thirty-three instances in which he acted for Lawson in matters of delicacy and importance. These ranged from dealing with financial magnates to financing stage productions.

THE BOOM BOOM IS CLEVER COMEDY

Admirably Put Together and Well Interpreted.

High School Actors Assume Roles
With Understanding and Are Well Drilled.

"ISHKODAH" STAFF'S EFFORT

"The Boom Boom," the High school play presented last night by the "Ishkodah" staff at the High school auditorium, was a complete success, before a large audience that expressed approval with frequent applause. The story of the play is one of a runaway princess, who comes to Hotel Savarin, on the Atlantic coast near New York, and there meets her lover. The management of the hotel has not made a success and he uses every effort to restrain his guests from leaving, when they announce their intention to go to New York.

The pathway of love does not run smoothly, and while the lovers are at the hotel a spy from Russia, their home, locates them, and in the second act the relatives from Russia have arrived and try to force the princess to marry her betrothed. A duel ensues, but without serious results, and the two lovers are happy ever afterward.

The part of Princess Wanda Souvaroff was taken by Miss Helen Hills, and her rendition of the leading part was most favorably received by the audience. Edward Cave as Ladislav Borowski, her lover, was pleasing in his lines, and went through the scene like one experienced. Claude Epperheimer, as Monsieur Bibi, the scheming proprietor of Hotel Savarin, shared honors with Mr. Cave, and while he occupied the stage much, he was never tiresome. Toni, the maid to the princess, was played by Miss Bess Lane, and to say the least her work was excellent throughout all the scenes.

As Eugene, the head waiter, Will Rock was a lively person in the right place, and Edward Mitchell, as the Russian spy, was as successful on the trail of approval as he was locating the lovers. Miss Ewell Ham, as Wanda's aunt, Edwin Randle as the princess' father and Oscar Gideon as the Grand Duke Stanislas, played their parts with refreshing intelligence and assumed the guise of older persons to perfection.

Helen Van Meter, as the deaf and dumb girl, deserves special mention for her work. In all of the difficult scenes, she held her own, and her rendition came in for applause. Clara Smith and Allie D. Foster, as reporters on rival New York papers, were good scribes, always on the scene at the right time, and feasted on a pretty love romance. Bobbie Dreyfuss Weil, as "Himself," was at home on the stage, and his appearance in the first act was greeted with applause.

Seldom does a High school play progress as smoothly as the merry farce last night. Much of the credit for the success reverts to Miss Anna Bird Stewart, of the High school faculty, who was careful in the rehearsing. All of the lines were heard distinctly, and even in the rear of the auditorium, one could follow the course of the play easily.

The story of the play was entertaining and well told.

NEPHRITIS.

What do physicians call kidney trouble?

Nephritis.
What does Nephritis mean?
Inflammation of the kidneys.
Is there any specific for inflammation of the kidneys?

Up to the discovery of Fulton's Renal Compound there was nothing known to physicians or pharmacists that would reduce Renal (kidney) inflammation.

What then have physicians given in chronic kidney disease?

Having nothing for Renal inflammation they gave up trying to reach the kidneys and considered it incurable, as the books say, and treated the heart and other symptoms.

Then other than Fulton's Renal Compound there is no real kidney specific?

There is nothing else known that will reduce kidney inflammation in any of its stages, either first or last.

But many kidney troubled people recover?

Because it commonly gets well at first. But if it does not it passes into the second stage that was incurable up to the discovery of this compound, and that is the reason the kidney deaths have now reached 170 per day.

Kidney disease in both stages is now curable by this compound in about 87 per cent of all cases.

Circumstantial Evidence.

"You say you met the defendant on a street car, and that he had been drinking and gambling," said the attorney for the defense during the cross-examination.

"Yes," replied the witness.

"Did you see him take a drink?"

"No."

"Did you see him gambling?"

"No."

"Then how do you know," demanded the attorney, "that the defendant had been drinking and gambling?"

"Well," explained the witness, "he gave the conductor a blue chip for his car fare and told him to keep the change."—Lippincott's.

FRED COLLINS SUES FOR $10,000 FROM E. E. HOLT.

Suit for $10,000 for personal injuries was brought in the circuit court yesterday by Fred Collins against E. E. Holt. The suit grows out of the shooting of Collins by Holt at the shooting of a performance given by a dog and pony show at Twelfth and Trimble streets in May, 1907, and occurred while Holt, who was a special policeman for the Illinois Central, was attempting to put a stop to what he thought was a fight in which Collins and a number of boys were engaged. When the officer approached the crowd Collins is said to have made for him with a heavy timber in his hand as if to strike the officer when the latter fired. Collins claimed that the crowd was only playing and that he thought Holt was one of his companions playing policeman. Collins was seriously wounded and came near dying. Officer Holt was arrested on a malicious shooting charge but was acquitted on the plea of self-defense.

THERE is a dash and swing, an optimistic note, in the cut of our young men's garments which says: "Young Man, these are yours," as plainly as so many words. Genteel innovations crop out in every detail of these vigorous models.

Trousers have permanent crease, some of them, preserving original shape indefinitely. Additional cash pocket in right hand trousers pocket affords a very convenient place for carrying small change. Breast pocket in coat is lined with a harmonizing shade of silk material which, when pulled out, is a splendid substitute for the silk handkerchief which everyone is wearing. These are just a few of the details which make these new suits a delight to the young fellow.

Come in and slip on a few of the new models. Feast your eyes on the new colorings: tan, brown, mode, elephant gray, tiger, tans and all the zoo shades, as well as the blues and fancy serges.

HOUSE PASSES STERLING BILL

Only One Vote is Recorded Against it.

All Common Carriers Liable to Employers for Injuries—Negligence Defense Knocked Out.

BILL TABLED IN THE SENATE

Washington, April 7.—With only one vote recorded against it by Litchfield, of Maine, the house under suspension of rules, passed the Sterling employers' liability bill, after 46 minutes' debate. In brief the bill establishes the doctrine that railroads engaged in interstate commerce are liable for personal injuries received by employees in the service of such carriers.

It abolishes the strict common law rule of liability which bars the recovery for personal injury or death of an employee, occasioned by the negligence of a fellow servant. It also relaxes common law rules which make contributory negligence a defense to claims for such injuries. A provision, however, diminishes the amount of recovery in the same degree that the negligence of the injured one contributed to the injury. The bill further makes each party responsible for his own negligence and requires each to bear the burden thereof.

The bill as passed by the house was transmitted to the senate later in the day, and on motion of Senator Doolivar laid on the table subject to being called up at any time. Senator Doolivar explained that the bill is quite similar to a measure reported to the senate from the committee on education and labor.

Doolivar contemplates asking the senate to agree to take up the bill at an early day. He will probably move to substitute the senate measure for house bill, and after the senate acts will then leave to a conference the task of agreeing upon a compromise measure.

The house bill is much more sweeping than the senate bill, as it applies to all "common carriers," while the senate bill applies only to "common carriers by railroad."

TAFT TALKS IN BRYAN'S STATE

Secretary Rounds Out Busy
Sixteen Hours.

Taft Replies to Utterances Criticizing McKinley and Roosevelt Administrations for Philippine Policy.

BRYAN IS NOT CONSISTENT

Omaha, April 7.—Secretary Taft rounded out the first day of his trip to Nebraska with a speech at the Auditorium last night, where he was the honored guest at a banquet of the McKinley club. It was a strenuous sixteen hours, which began at 8 o'clock in the morning and ended at midnight.

The secretary took occasion to place before the people the real issues of the coming campaign, as he views them, and incidentally to reply to the recent utterances of William J. Bryan when the Democratic leader criticized the action of the McKinley and Roosevelt administrations for their policy in the Philippines.

The secretary stated that Bryan was not consistent in his utterance, because he had been the means, in a large degree, of bringing about the signing of the treaty of Paris, whereby the Philippines came under the control of the United States, and he is now criticizing the action of the administration to teach the Philippines the art of self-government.

Taft also took up and dwelt at length with the question of railroad legislation and individual combinations which he considered one of the principal issues of the campaign.

The day was full of functions for Taft. It began at Council Bluffs, where he was met at Union Station by a reception committee from Omaha, which accompanied him across the river and acted as an escort to the hotel, where he had breakfast. He was occupied for nearly three hours during the forenoon with Secretary Michener, preparing his evening address, and at 12:30 was the guest of honor at a luncheon given by Victor Rosewater at the Omaha club.

There were also present Governor Sheldon and members of the Nebraska delegation to the national Republican convention. After the luncheon the secretary was hurried to the first Congregational church where he addressed the Woman's club for an hour. Returning to the hotel, Taft devoted some time to the revision of his night address, and was whirled away to the Auditorium.

The secretary entered the banquet hall arm in arm with Governor Sheldon, the banquets rising and sending up a salvo of cheers.

At the close of the banquet speeches were made by Governor Sheldon, William A. White and others. Secretary Taft had the last address on the program and was greeted with cheers which lasted fully five minutes, when he rose to speak.

"The issues of the next campaign are to turn on the achievements of the McKinley and Roosevelt administrations, which still remain that subject for discussion between us and our Democratic friends, or rather between us and the gentleman who still seems to have the power of leading the Democratic party against its will. We are to accept, not what the Democratic party, as it used to be, thinks on any issue, but what Bryan thinks on every issue, as a real basis for the national campaign to be ended by the election in November next. Because Bryan still keeps alive the controversies which many Democrats are content to regard as settled, we have to go back and discuss matters which the verdict of history, properly interpreted, ought long ago to have ended."

With this opening Taft entered upon the discussion of various topics treated by Bryan in the past. He devoted a large portion of his address to the Spanish war and its result, especially with reference to the Philippines. He applauded and defended the course pursued by the Republicans in these matters. He pointed out the impossibility of avoiding our responsibilities in the Philippines which came to us as one of the results of the war, and which passed into our control by the provision of the treaty of Paris, which Bryan assisted in having approved.

Taft cited many new laws passed by the Republican congress and approved by the Republican administration, which have been of great benefit to the people.

TOBACCO NEWS

Hopkinsville, Ky., April 7.—On the local tobacco market during the past week everything has moved along in a steady manner, everybody being kept busy, but no unusual features developing.

The salesman for the Planters' Protective association reports the sale of 65 hogsheads of lugs and low-grade leaf at the schedule prices, ranging from $7 to $13. Receipts by the association last week were 518 hogsheads, the heaviest of the season, making a total of 3,303 hogsheads.

With the Society of Equity warehouse sales were light, but what was sold, all being lugs and low-grade leaf, brought from $7 to $10. Receipts continue good.

Loose tobacco continues to pour into the Society of Equity and association prize houses. It is estimated that 75 to 80 per cent. of the crop of the dark tobacco district has been delivered, and it will only be a short time until it is all in the prize houses.

Plant beds are reported to be coming nicely, and as yet nothing has interfered with them. When the transplanting season begins there will be plenty of plants for every field.

The last report issued by John D. Seales, auditor of the Planters' Protective association, shows the following sales made at the nine markets in the district from March 16 to April 1: Guthrie, 147 hogsheads at $7 to $12; Hopkinsville, 182 hogsheads at $7 to $12; Clarksville, 235 hogsheads, $7 to $13; Clarksville, 235 hogsheads, heads at $7 to $12.75; Paducah, 96

Clarksville Tobacco.

Clarksville, Tenn., April 7.—The receipts in the Clarksville open tobacco market in March were 1,840 hogsheads. The sales were 224 hogsheads and shipments 795 hogsheads. Total stocks on hand, 2,886 hogsheads. Buyers' stocks, 137 hogsheads; sellers' stocks, 2,749 hogsheads. The receipts during the past week were 511 hogsheads; sales, 90 hogsheads. The market remains firm to strong for all grades of tobacco. The receipts of loose tobacco are falling off, as nearly all of the crop has been delivered. Warehouse stocks are steadily running up, and now contains a good assortment of the various grades. The Dark Tobacco Growers' association reports the sale of 140 hogsheads of tobacco at this place at satisfactory prices. The flea-beetle is reported to be doing some damage to the plant beds of this section. The following prices are quoted: Low lugs, $7 to $7.50; common lugs, $7.75 to $8.25; medium lugs, $8.50 to $9; good lugs, $9.25 to $10; low leaf, $10.50 to $11; common leaf, $11 to $12.50; medium leaf, $13 to $14; good leaf, $14.50 to $15.50; fine leaf, $16 to $18.

THEATRICAL NOTES

At The Kentucky.

"The Last of His Race," the great Russian drama as produced by the Al. V. Mills company at the Kentucky last night, pleased one of the largest audiences that the Kentucky has seen for a long time. The company as a whole is one of the best that has ever visited the city at popular prices. The cast is well balanced and the company thoroughly capable of producing the higher and better class of plays of which their repertoire consists. Tonight the attraction will be "Man's Inhumanity." In this Mr. Ralph McDonald will be seen at his best, as superintendent of the great Krumpton Iron Works. The play deals with capital and labor.

"Don't bother about the name and contents—what's the price of the book?"

"Three dollars," said the young agent, raising to the occasion, "but

Increased Capacity for Mental Labor
Since Leaving Off Coffee.

Many former coffee drinkers who have mental work to perform, day after day, have found a better capacity and greater endurance by using Postum Cereal instead of coffee. An ill woman writes:

"I had drank coffee for about 20 years, and finally had what the doctor called 'coffee heart.' I was nervous and extremely dependent; had little mental or physical strength left, had kidney trouble and constipation.

"The first noticeable benefit derived from the change from coffee to Postum was the natural action of the kidneys and bowels. In two weeks my heart action was greatly improved and my nerves steady.

"Then I became less despondent, and the desire to be active again, showed proof of renewed physical and mental strength.

"I am steadily gaining in physical strength and brain power. I formerly did mental work and had to give it up on account of coffee, but since using Postum I am doing hard mental labor with less fatigue than ever before."

Daily Thought.

There is a great difference between contentment and a dead ambition.—Success Magazine.

Why not provide bicycle racks for Merry Widow hats in the church vestibule?

We fear people, who heed the reports in a local paper, and go to Murray to hear the bugle calls and watch the soldiers drill, will be disappointed. These soldiers do their drilling on the lonely county pike at night.

The Mardi Gras must advertise, and the flower festivals of the western cities wane in interest, but Benton's "Tater Day" draws the crowds year after year, and they revel in the old-fashioned hospitality of Marshall county.

JUDGE REED'S CHARGE TO THE NIGHT RIDERS.

No more unique charge was ever made to a grand jury, than that delivered yesterday by Judge William Reed, of the McCracken circuit court. Like President Roosevelt's messages, the paper was read to the grand jury, but it is addressed to the people, and it would make mighty good reading for youths, who have been drawn into scrapes, from which they would gladly withdraw. Judge Reed calls attention to the fact that anyone, who conspires to perpetrate these outrages, is just as guilty as the ones, who actually perform the unlawful acts, and if murder is committed in the perpetration of a crime in which all are implicated, all are equally guilty.

Let us draw a lesson from the Birmingham raid. A mob of men went there in the night time to whip some negroes. We shall not waste any time discussing their purpose and the moral obliquity involved; but suffice for this lesson that they didn't go there intending to commit murder. Nevertheless, they did commit murder, and it is of little concern to the commonwealth, who fired the shots that killed their victims—every man engaged in that raid, or that conspired to make the raid is equally guilty of murder, and whether or not he is brought to justice for the deed, he bears the stain of murder on his soul.

When men set forth on an unlawful enterprise, which requires masks and the cover of darkness, they may be presumed to intend any natural consequence of their acts, and all crimes necessary to protect them from exposure and capture. So when they whip a man and he dies, they are guilty of premeditated murder. In nearly every case the unexpected arises, and confronted with the alternative of committing murder or being killed or arrested themselves, which way will they turn in the heat of passion and the hot blooded decision of the instant?

When a man leagues with outlaws to violate the law, he not only assumes joint responsibility with them on the common enterprise, but he becomes involved in all the reckless undertakings they may thereafter resolve upon. He is bound by the ties of mutual protection to keep their secrets, and conceal the identity of every horrible crime their bloody minds may conceive. Thereafter he is fettered by his sin, and gagged by fear, whether his companions engage in highway robbery, horse stealing or rape, and if they choose to make him an accomplice after the fact, how can he escape them, without confessing his own crime and suffering punishment at the hands of the law?

Judge Reed has some words of wholesome advice for the wild youths of the Purchase counties in his charge to the grand jury. It probably was with the hope of deterring them, as much as the desire to punish those already embarked on a criminal career, that moved the judge to go so deeply into the subject of night riding.

The judge speaks fairly to the in-born honor of the American people, when he declares that "such practices will not be tolerated by an intelligent public for any considerable time." Officers of the court and civil officers, who are thus aligning themselves with right and justice, are not only fulfilling their sacred obligation, but they are exercising the highest discretion. The law will prevail. Why, what would we be, if it would not?

After all the suzerainty extended to the desperadoes of the Black Patch, it required an heroic will for a court official to come out boldly and speak in unequivocal language, and be it said to the credit of Judge William Reed, that he took the initiative in the night rider business. Since he promptly called a special grand jury at Lovett, and Commonwealth's Attorney Benton succeeded in securing the evidence to indict night riders, other judges and other commonwealth's attorneys have followed suit.

Everybody, who is for the law, will win in the end. Let us not forget that. Judge Reed, and County Judge Lightfoot, and Attorneys Lovett and Barkley have the community behind them.

JUDGE WELLS AND OTHERS.

County Judge Wells, of Calloway, says the Courier-Journal, has shown his mettle by taking a firm stand against not only the mob, but also the men of political influence who sympathize with the mob. His activity for law and order began at the psychological moment. The mob outrages had driven the victims and possible victims of atrocities to the point of retaliation by night and open rebellion by day. Retaliatory crimes are as unparadonable from the standpoint of civilized society as the acts that provoke them. Open rebellion against the tyranny of the mob is what is needed. Had the "hill billies" and negroes in Calloway and adjoining counties instituted dark-o-the-moon proceedings, with the rifle and torch as the instruments of vengeance, no one would have been benefited, the county and the state would have suffered additional disgrace, property within the zone of the revolution for the overthrow of the night riders would have become unsalable and homes and human lives would have become merely pawns in the game of getting even.

The officials have adopted the right course. Judge Wells, it is said, has the cordial support of many good citizens and the loyal support of Sheriff J. A. Edwards. Sheriff Edwards will have important duties to perform when the juries are selected to try the alleged outlaws in the circuit court. The outlook is that he will be faithful in the performance of these duties, and prospects are bright for peace, the restoration of property rights and the protection of life in Calloway county.

Judge Cook, whose judicial district embraces Calloway, Christian, Lyon and Trig counties, has an opportunity to be of great service to the state in conducting the trials of night riders. There is no evidence at present to indicate that he will fail to meet the requirements of the situation.

The dark tobacco section will be fortunate if the county officials in other counties follow the example of those in Calloway and make a vigorous and courageous effort to call a halt upon the mob before the unprotected citizens take it upon themselves to seek a means of settling scores as violent as the methods of the mob.

The MYSTERY

By Stewart Edward White
And Samuel Hopkins Adams

Copyright, 1907, by McClure, Phillips & Co.

In the evening sometimes we lit a big bonfire, sailor fashion, just at the edge of the beach. There we sat at ease and smoked our pipes in silence, too tired to talk. Even Handy Solomon's song was still. Outside the circle of light were mysterious things—strange wavings of white hands, bendings of figures, callings of voices, rustling of feet. We knew them for the surf and the wind in the grasses, but they were not the less mysterious for that.

Logically Captain Selover and I should have passed most of our evenings together. As a matter of fact we so spent very few. Early in the dusk the captain invariably roved himself out to his beloved schooner. What he did there I do not know. We could see his light now in one part of her, now in the other. The men claimed he was scrubbing her teeth. "Old Scrub" they called him to his back, never Captain Selover.

"He has to clean up after his own feet, he's so dirty," sagely proffered Handy Solomon. And this was true. The seaman's prophecy held good. Seven weeks held us at that infernal job—seven weeks of solid, grinding work. The worst of it was that we were kept at it so breathlessly, as though our very existence were to depend on the headlong rush of our labor. And then we had fully half the stores to put away again and the other half to transport painfully over the neck of land from the cove to the beach.

So accustomed had I become to the routine in which we were involved, so habituated to anticipating the coming day as exactly like the day that had gone, that the completion of our job caught me quite by surprise. I had thrown myself down by the fire prepared for the same old half hour of drowsy nicotine, to be followed by the accustomed heavy sleep and the usual early rising to toil. The evening was warm. I half closed my eyes.

Handy Solomon was coming in last. Instead of dropping to his place he straddled the fire, stretching his arms over his head. He let them fall with a sharp exhalation:

"Lay aloft, lay aloft! the jolly bo's'n cried."

Blow high, blow low, what care we? Look ahead, look astern, look a-ward, look a-lee."

Down on the coast of the high Barbaree-e-e."

The effect was electrical. We all sprang to our feet and fell to talking at once.

"By God, we're through!" cried Pulz.

"I'd clean forgot it!"

The nigger piled on more wood. We drew closer about the fire. All the interests in life, so long held by the background, leaped forward, eager for recognition. We spoke of trivialities almost for the first time since our landing, fused into a temporary but complete good fellowship by the relief.

"Wonder how the old doctor is getting on?" ventured Thrackles after awhile.

"The devil's a preacher! I wonder?" cried Handy Solomon.

"Let's make 'em a call," suggested Pulz.

"Don't believe they'd appreciate the compliment," I laughed. "Better let them make first call. They're the longer established." This was lost on them, of course. But we all felt kindly to one another that evening.

I carried the glow of it with me over until the next morning and was therefore somewhat dashed to meet Captain Selover with clouded brows and an uncertain manner. He quite ignored my greeting.

"Eagen," he squeaked, "can you think of anything more to be done?"

I straightened my back and laughed. "Haven't you worked us hard enough?" I inquired.

"Unless you zild the cabins I don't see what else there can be to do."

Captain Selover stared me over.

"And you a naval man?" he marvelled.

"Don't you see that the only thing that keeps this crew from getting restless is keeping them busy? I've sweated more with my brain than you have with your back thinking up things to do. I can't see anything ahead, and then we'll have trouble. Oh, they're a sweet lot!"

I whistled, and my crest fell. Here was a new point of view and also a new Captain Ezra. Where was the confidence in the might of his two hands?

He seemed to read my thoughts and went on:

"I don't feel sure here on this cussed land. It ain't like a deck where a man has some show. They can scatter. They can hide. It ain't right to put a man ashore alone with such a crew. I'm doing my best, but it ain't goin' to be good enough. I wish we were safe in Frisco harbor."

He would have maundered on, but I seized his arm and led him out of possible hearing of the men.

"Here, buck up!" I said to him sternly. "There's nothing to be scared of. If it comes to a row, there's three of us, and we've got guns. We could even sail the schooner at a pinch and leave them here. You've stood them off before."

"Not ashore," protested Captain Selover weakly.

"Well, they don't know that. Don't let them see you've lost your nerve this way." He did not even wince at the accusation. "Put up a front."

He shook his head. The sand had completely run out of him. Yet I am convinced that if he could have felt the heave and roll of the deck beneath him he would have faced three times the difficulties he now feared. However, I could see readily enough the wisdom of keeping the men at work.

No Fat Women at Lyons.

For true female grace and handsome figures the city of Lyons surpasses all French towns, declared a recent traveler. The women of both high and low degree are alike equal in the possession of graceful flowing body lines. They are not thin, but elegant; as a man would say, just right. I understand this highly ornamental condition of the women folks is true wherever Marmola is much used, as it is in this famous old silk town. American women who are over fat, little or much, should adopt this extremely valuable and simple plan of reducing, for Marmola in 1/2 ounce sealed packages (see it is sealed) is obtainable in all American drug stores. Add to it at home a 1/2 ounce Fluid Extract Cascara Aromatic and 3 1/2 ounces Syrup Simplex and take a spoonful after meals and at bedtime. The whole receipt costs but a few cents, but it takes off the fat in a wonderful way—even as much as 16 ounces a day without causing wrinkles or any ill effects. Fact is, it improves the health and brings brilliancy to the eyes and complexion.

"You can wreck the Golden Horn," I suggested. "I don't know whether there's anything left worth salvaging, but it'll be something to do."

He clapped me on the shoulder.

"Good!" he cried. "I never thought of it."

"Another thing," said I, "you better give them a day off a week. That can't hurt them, and it'll waste just that much more time."

"All right," agreed Captain Selover.

"Another thing yet. You know I'm not lary, so it ain't that I'm trying to dodge work. But you'd better lay me off. It'll be so much more for the others."

"That's true," said he.

I could not recognize the man for what I knew him to be. He groined, as one in the dark or as a sea animal taken out of its element and placed on the sands. Courage had given place to fear, decision to wavering and singleness of purpose to a divided counsel.

He who had so thoroughly dominated the entire ship eagerly accepted advice of me, a man without experience.

That evening I sat apart considerably disturbed. I felt that the ground had dropped away beneath my feet. To be sure everything was tranquil at present, but now I understood the source of that tranquility and how soon it must fall. With opportunity would come more scheming, more speculation, more cupidity. How was I to meet it, with none to back me but a scared man, an absorbed man and an indifferent man?

(To be continued in next issue.)

A proverb is something men invented to console them for not having something they wanted that other people had.

FACTS FOR SICK WOMEN

NO OTHER MEDICINE HAS BEEN SO SUCCESSFUL IN RELIEVING THE SUFFERING OF WOMEN OR RECEIVED SO MANY GENUINE TESTIMONIALS AS HAS LYDIA E. PINKHAM'S VEGETABLE COMPOUND.

In every community you will find women who have been restored to health by Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound. Almost every one you meet has either been benefited by it, or has friends who have.

In the Pinkham Laboratory at Lynn, Mass., any woman may see the files containing over one million one hundred thousand letters from women seeking health, and here are the letters in which they openly state over their own signatures that they were cured by Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound.

Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound has saved many women from surgical operations.

Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound is made from roots and herbs, without drugs, and is wholesome and harmless.

The reason why Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound is so successful is because it contains ingredients which act directly upon the feminine organism, restoring it to a healthy normal condition.

Women who are suffering from those distressing ills peculiar to their sex should not lose sight of these facts or doubt the ability of Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound to restore their health.

Hot Springs Treatment Having Good Effect on Admiral.

Pao Robles Hot Springs, Cal., April 7.—Rear Admiral Evans continues to show improvement. Although he had a rather restless night, it was said to be due to fatigue resulting from his drive of yesterday. He awakened rather early today, but suffered no pain and was in good spirits. He spent an hour and a half with baths and treatments.

Completely Cured.

Mr. W. J. Aday, 1915 Jones street, who has been to the asylum at Hopkinstown, will return home next Sunday completely cured of trouble in his head. Several years ago Mr. Aday was struck on the head and went to Hopkinstown for treatment.

DEMOCRATS SEEK PARTY HONORS IN FIRST DISTRICT

Hon. John L. Smith, a well known Democratic politician from between the rivers, and representative of the Lyon-Marshall district in the last legislature, is in the city today. He has an ambition to go to the Denver convention from the First district, if O. L. James is one of the big four, Gus Thomas, of Mayfield, is actively seeking the honor of representing the Purchase counties there. C. C. Grassham, of this city, may be nominated for presidential elector. The activity of candidates for various offices and honors has revived talk of the First district organization, which will be settled by the delegates to the state convention. It is known that Mott Ayres, state executive committeeman, and Clem Whittemore, central committeeman, will not be re-elected. In fact, they will not seek the places.

Many names are suggested for their successors and Magistrate C. W. Emery is prominently spoken of for state central committeeman, while N. O. Gray, of Eddyville, and Gen. Henry Lawrence, of Cadiz, are both in line for Ayres' berth.

All these posts are more or less pawns in the lively political scramble for county and district offices, and with Eugene Graves preparing to run again for the lower house, the outside counties are bringing forth favorite sons for state senator from this district.

Among those mentioned are Hon. E. Barry, of Marshall county, one of the most conspicuous, able and fearless men in the house, when he represented his district; J. Bogart Wyatt and John T. Moore, of Ballard, the latter an attorney well known in this city, and A. M. Nichols, of Carlisle.

TRUE JEANS, GENTLEMEN.

(Song of the Night Riders.)

I.

It's up and out with the bat and owl! We ride by night in fair and foul; In foul and fair we take the pike, And no man knows where our hand shall strike;

For, gun and pistol, and torch and mask,

These are our laws—let any ask: And should one ask, why, tell him then

That we are the true-jeans gentlemen.

II.

It's up and out with the owl and bat! The road winds back by wood and flat. Black clouds are hunting the flying moon;

Let them hunt her down! and mid-night soon

Shall blossom a wilder light, when dawn

We gallop and shoot and burn the town.

Who cares a curse who asks us then?—

For we are the true-jeans gentlemen.

III.

It's up and on! give the horse his head! The rain is out and the world in bed. There stands a house by the roadway black,

Where the station sleeps near the railroad track.

Riddle its windows and batter its door,

And call him out and shoot some more.

And if he questions why, damn him! then

Just shoot him down like gentlemen.

IV.

Why he was a wretch beneath all scorn

Who planted the weed instead of corn. And here is another who sold, by God! Just bare his back and ply the rod!

Now burn his barn! and, sink or swim,

It's sport for us, but Hell for him.

And well he'll know when we leave him then

That we are the true-jeans gentlemen.

V.

Yes; we are kin to the bat and owl. We wait till night, then prey and prow!

The man who plants or sells this year Our hounds shall smell him out, no fear.

The hunt is up! who'll bid us halt? We'll sow his beds with grass and salt,

Or shoot him down like a dog, and then

Ride off like true-jeans gentlemen.

COOPER AROUSES INTEREST OF QUEEN CITY RESIDENTS

An adequate idea of the intense interest young Mr. Cooper during the past year with his theories and medicines is given in the following article which appeared in the Cincinnati Post while Cooper was introducing his ideas to the people of that city. The article says: "The beginning of Mr. Cooper's second week in Cincinnati gives every indication that he is to enjoy the same astonishing success here as in other cities."

"From the first day of his visit the crowds that call to see him have steadily increased, until now it has reached a point where several thousand talk with him each day. The entire city seems to have become interested in his theory that the human stomach is degenerate, and he already has an army of followers in Cincinnati who seem positive that his claims are correct."

"A number of Cincinnatians were interviewed at Cooper's headquarters on Friday, and several interesting statements, showing their intense faith in Cooper's preparations, were secured. The following are selected from these statements and are characteristic of them all: Mrs. M. E. Emerson of 630 West Court street, said: 'I have suffered with stomach trouble and constipation for a year or so. When I ate I would have bloated spells, sour stomach, fermentation, bad taste in my mouth. In the morning

I was as tired as when I went to bed. I had a dull pain in the lower part of my back. I have taken almost one bottle of the New Discovery and am so wonderfully improved that I have come down here to thank Mr. Cooper in person and obtain more of the medicine.'

"Another individual interviewed was Mr. J. H. Brooks, living at 527 Walnut street, who had the following to say: 'For the past eighteen months I have been a constant sufferer from catarrh of the head and stomach. My nasal passage would become inflamed and sore. I would have severe headaches, which affected my eyes, and great crusts of matter would drop into the throat, causing an irritation of the bronchial passages, until the stomach finally became poisoned. When I would lay down at night a phlegm would gather in my throat until it almost choked me, and would cause an annoying cough. Half a bottle of Cooper's New Discovery gave me relief and when the first bottle was finished, I felt like a new man. I am now completely cured and consider Cooper's New Discovery the greatest catarrh, bronchitis, stomach remedy in the world.'

"The Cooper preparations have been wonderfully successful throughout the United States. We consider them remarkable medicines and would be pleased to explain the nature of them."

A pleasant party made the round trip to Cairo today on the Dick Fowler. They were accompanied by Mrs. Frank M. Fisher and Mrs. Samuel H. Winstead. Included were: Miss Frances Wallace, Blanche Hills, Bella Coleman, Frances Coleman, May Owen, Belle Cave, Lillie Mae Winstead, Messrs. Douglas Bagby, John Brooks, Henry Dewey, Walter Iverson, Fred Wade, Stuart Snott, Richard Donovan.

Delphic Club.

The Delphic club met this morning in regular session at the Carnegie library assembly rooms. "Cairo, the Splendid," was discussed very delightfully. Mrs. Elizabeth Austin described in a comprehensive way "The City and Suburbs, People and Bazaars." Mrs. Frank Barnard contributed an interesting account of "The Museum and Libraries" of Cairo. Mrs. Barnard is spending the winter in Colorado and her paper was read by Mrs. Mildred Davis. "The Devotional Music and His Mosques" was attractively given by Mrs. Robert Becker Phillips.

Of Interest Here.

Mrs. J. H. Roberts will hold an informal reception Tuesday, April 7th, from 3 to 6 p. m., at her home, 526 East Main street (District Parsonage). All the members and friends of the local Home Mission Societies of Jackson are invited to meet the president, Mrs. D. M. Patterson; the third vice-president, Mrs. J. C. Speight, of Mayfield, Ky.; and the honorary life president, Mrs. Sue F. Mooney, Dresden, Tenn.—Jackson Daily Sun.

Mr. Fred Acker will leave tomorrow at noon for a several days' visit.

Mr. S. B. Chester, of Mayfield, who had his right arm broken last week at Armour & company's, is improving and will return to work in a few days.

Mrs. Richard Helsley and little daughters, Georgia Mabel and Mary Katherine, have returned to their home in Memphis, Tenn., after a visit to Mrs. Helsley's mother, Mrs. John Iseman, of South Sixth street.

Mr. Elmus Beale, of Murray, was in the city today on a business trip.

Col. John Theobald, of the Mayfield road, who is ill of pneumonia, is improving slowly and his doctors say he will recover unless complications develop.

Hon. John L. Smith, representative in the legislature from Lyon and Marshall county, is in Paducah today.

Mr. Ed Lee left today for Frankfort after a visit to his sister, Miss Ora V. Leigh, and his brother, Mr. Ollie P. Leigh.

Messrs. Blakely Mizell, of Dexter,

Mothers are at their wit's end many times trying to find a safe, nourishing food for the baby that's just been weaned. This is an important epoch in the little one's life and on securing proper food depends the future growth of the child.

Grape-Nuts soaked in hot milk, then cooled to the right temperature, with a fit sugar, meets the requirements of the newly weaned child in 99 cases out of 100—perhaps an even hundred!

Try a teaspoonful, softened to a paste with a little of the hot milk and then all mixed together—half a cupful. It's safe because Grape-Nuts is made only of wheat and barley and baked from 12 to 16 hours. It's a great food for babies or grown-ups.

"There's a Reason."

King Gives Consent.

New York, April 7.—Formal announcement of the engagement and coming marriage of Miss Katherine Elkins to the Duc d'Abuzzi will be made this week, according to a statement of persons in the confidence of the family of United States Senator Elkins. Private cable advices to Senator Elkins, it was stated, are to the effect that King Victor Emmanuel, the duke's cousin; the queen and the queen's mother have approved the engagement. The duke of Abuzzi has had a long interview with the members of the royal family.

BLOOD FILLED WITH URIC ACID

Rheumatism comes from an excess of uric acid in the blood. This acid circulating through the system acts as an irritant to the different muscles, nerves, bones and tissues of the body, and produces the inflammation and swelling of the joints and the sharp, cutting pains characteristic of the disease. When the blood is overburdened with uric acid it continually grows weaker and more acid, and poorer in nourishing qualities. Then Rheumatism becomes chronic, and not only a painful, but a formidable and dangerous disease. Sometimes the heart is attacked, the general health is affected, and the oils and fluids which lubricate the muscles and joints are destroyed by the acid matter which the blood is constantly depositing in them; the muscles shrink and lose their elasticity, the coating of the joints becomes hard and thick, and often the sufferer is left a hopeless cripple. S. S. S. attacks the disease at its head, goes down into the circulation, and by neutralizing and removing the uric acid from the circulation and building up the thin, acid blood, cures Rheumatism permanently. S. S. S. changes the sour, acid-burdened blood to a rich, healthy stream which quiets the excited nerves, eases the throbbing, painful muscles and joints, and filters out of the system the irritating matter which is causing the pain and inflammation. Begin the use of S. S. S. now and get the cause out of your blood so that the cold and dampness of Winter will not keep you in constant pain and misery. AERONAUTIC CORPS

WANTED BY YOUNGER OFFICERS OF NAVY.

Rear Admiral Chester Believes Balloons Will Play Part in Future Fights.

Washington, April 7.—Anxious to see the navy not a whit behind the army, many of the younger naval officers are endeavoring to promote the establishment of an aeronautic corps for the navy, like the balloon squad of the army signal corps. Rear Admiral Chester is a staunch advocate of aeronautics in the navy, believing that airships will play an important part in future wars.

At the suggestion of Rear Admiral Chester it had been planned to send an airship to Magdalena Bay for experiments in connection with the maneuvers of Admiral Evans' fleet, but owing to the lack of funds for such a purpose, the plan had to be abandoned. An airship is being built in Toledo, which will be tested before a board of naval officers in Washington, as soon as completed, probably in May.

Lieutenant Robert Henderson, chief engineer of the battleship Missouri, together with several other officers of Admiral Evans' fleet, contemplate the construction of an airship while the fleet is on the coast. Lieutenant Henderson is an enthusiastic aeronaut, and made an ascension in the Pommer, the balloon which won the Gordon Bennett race. It is said that the members of the board of naval officers believe that the time has come when the navy must begin work in aeronautics, and it may not be long before the study of aerial navigation will be included in the curriculum of the Annapolis academy.

MANY CASES OF RHEUMATISM HERE

A Mixture Which Makes the Kidneys Filter Out Poisons and Waste.

YOU CAN TRY IT ANYWAY

All medical authorities are agreed that the blood is the great source of disease or of health in the human system. If the blood is pure, the individual is strong and healthy; if the blood is impure or diseased then there is sickness or decay in the whole system.

Rheumatism is strictly a blood disease. It is caused by excessive uric acid. Sores, pimples, etc., mean bad blood. Catarrhal affections must be treated through the blood to get permanent results. To get well, to feel strong, hearty and vigorous one must have good clean blood and lots of it. You can't clean the blood thoroughly unless the kidneys are made active. Bad blood means clogged, inactive kidneys and liver, which causes, too, such symptoms as backache, nervousness, bladder and urinary difficulties and other sympathetic troubles.

Here is a simple home remedy and the recipe for making it up is as follows:

Fluid Extract Dandelion, one-half ounce; Compound Kargon, one ounce; Compound Syrup Sarsaparilla, three ounces. Shake well in a bottle and take in teaspoonful doses after each meal and again at bedtime. The ingredients can be obtained at any good prescription pharmacy at small cost.

Here the readers of this paper have a simple yet powerful and effective remedy for all forms of blood, kidney and bladder diseases which should relieve rheumatism and catarrhal affections and replace that weak, worn-out, indifferent feeling with strength, vigor and health.

MILLIONS OF SLEEPERS.

Some Railroads Already Growing Trees to Supply Needs of Future.

It has been asserted on good authority that enough timber has to be cut every year in the United States to supply 1,000,000 sleepers for American railways. It has also been computed that within half a century there will be no timber standing in this country fit to use for sleepers unless the process of afforestation is meanwhile prosecuted with great energy and on a vast scale by the federal and state governments. There are, however, two other measures by which our waste of timber might be checked materially.

For example, the railway corporations themselves might take precautions against the threatened dearth of timber suitable for sleepers by utilizing their own lands for forest culture. The Pennsylvania company has already taken a long step in this direction, for between 1902 and 1907 it placed in the ground no fewer than 1,670,000 trees, mainly the black locust. In April and May of last year nearly 450,000 seedlings from three to four years old of the red oak and six other varieties of trees were set out at three points on the main line of the railway between Harrisburg and Altoona. If this work is continued the Pennsylvania company will ultimately be able to make good its vast consumption of timber for sleeper purposes.

The squandering of timber might also be very much curtailed if American railways would universally employ some of the methods used in foreign countries for the preservation of sleepers from decay. According to the trade Journal Engineering there is now not a single railway in England which is not laid with creosoted sleepers, and the same thing is true of most of the French lines. In Russia the zinc chloride process used to be employed widely, but it was found that in course of time the zinc salts would be washed out. Both in Russia and on this side of the Atlantic the preservative treatment is now giving place to creosote.—New York Sun.

SEVEN DRINKS

COMPOSED JESSE HARRIS INTO SLUMBER.

Young Man Lies Down Under Tree to Sober Up and Dies Alone in His Stupor.

Mayfield, Ky., April 7.—Jesse Harris, a young man living three and one-half miles southwest of Boydsville across the line in Tennessee and near the state line, was found dead about 7 o'clock lying under a tree. Death, according to the verdict of a coroner's jury was due to exposure and drink. From what information that could be obtained young Harris had been to a blacksmith shop in his neighborhood and had started back home when he stopped at the home of his brother, where he and others indulged in several drinks of whisky. In company with J. N. Alderdice he went in the direction of his home. When at the forks of the road young Harris went his way and Mr. Alderdice went in the opposite direction to his home. Young Mr. Harris was riding horseback and the presumption is that he became violently intoxicated and decided to stop by the roadside to sober up.

The alcoholic spirits had affected him more than he had anticipated, and fell asleep never to awake again. His heart was doubtless affected by the whisky, causing death. When found his body was cold, showing that Harris had been dead for several hours. It is said that the young man drank seven drinks of whisky and this was about 5 o'clock Saturday evening. The deceased was a son of R. W. Harris, a prominent farmer on the Tennessee line in Weakley county.

MANAGER OF THE KOZY THEATER WHIPS ROWDIES.

Three unknown men raised a disturbance in front of the Kozy moving picture show last night, and used abusive language in hearing distance of the young woman selling tickets. Mr. Louis Farrell, the manager, tried to quiet them, and two went into the show, while the third man became abusive to Mr. Farrell, who chased him down the street. The manager went into the show and while standing near the exit the unknown man rushed in and knocked him down. Mr. Farrell drew a small pocket knife and made a slash and accidentally scratched Burton Craig on the leg. Mr. Farrell cut a finger on his left hand. After the occurrence the rowdies left the show and the police were unable to find them.

Trouble at "Flying Dutchmen."

"Flying Dutchmen" are tabooed by Police Judge Cross, and this morning in court he took occasion to express his disapproval of them. His reason was that so much disorder has taken place around the amusement places that the police have their hands full. Last night Myrtle Pettit, 14 years old, and Mary Lane, 13 years old, both colored, were arrested for fighting. Because of their ages the girls did not come within the jurisdiction of the police court, but after a good talk to the girls' mothers the warrants were dismissed on agreement that a sound whipping be given, and both the girls placed in school.

Hot Stove—Cool Kitchen

How do you expect to endure the broiling days of summer if you prepare all the food over a glowing coal fire?

You need a "New Perfection" Oil Stove that will do the cooking without cooking the cook. It concentrates plenty of heat under the pot and diffuses little or none through the room. Therefore, when working with the the kitchen actually seems as comfortable as you could wish it to be.

This, in itself, is wonderful, but, more than that, the "New Perfection" Oil Stove does perfectly everything that any stove can do. It is an ideal all-round cook-stove. Made in three sizes, and fully warranted. If not with your dealer, write our nearest agency.

Patient and Little Granddaughter Both Secure Permanent Results From Wonderful Liquid Remedy.

Mrs. Alfred Aldrich, of Pompano, Fla., and her little granddaughter were both cured of itching, burning skin diseases by the use of ordinary oil of wintergreen mixed with glycerine, thymol, etc., the case having attracted considerable attention among medical men.

Mrs. Aldrich had doctored for years for Eczema without finding any relief, while her granddaughter was developing the dreaded psoriasis spots which threatened to become permanent. Yet only one bottle of the oil of wintergreen wash, compounded in D. D. D. Prescription, cured the two cases. It was the quickness of the cure under such a short treatment that aroused the interest of specialists generally, for usually Eczema, psoriasis, barber's itch, salt rheum and other diseases of like character, are cured, if cured at all, only by a long course of treatment.

Mrs. Aldrich writes: "I had sores on my face for three years and during all that time I tried everything I could find. I took any amount of blood medicines and used all kinds of healing salves. One day my husband told me to send for your D. D. D. Prescription and try it, and I am only too happy to say that D. D. D. not only cured me, but also my little granddaughter."

Oil of wintergreen, the chief ingredient of D. D. D. Prescription, is compounded with other healing vegetable properties to produce this liquid remedy which is as easy to apply as water. It acts directly on the skin so the relief is instantaneous—as you will find by your first trial. We know it and vouch for it. We will be glad to furnish a free booklet on the causes and cure of diseases of the skin; also a pamphlet on D. D. D. Soap. R. W. Walker Co., Fifth and Broadway.

THE CONSTITUTION NEEDS TOUCHING

Says Congressman De Armond in Address to Yale Club.

Speaker's Power Greater Than That of President—Enslaves Majority, Strangles Minority.

JUDICIARY IS TOO STRONG.

New York, April 7.—Speaking before the Yale Political club last night Congressman De Armond, of Missouri, said in part:

Ours is a government wherein the federal constitution is the supreme law of the land. By the constitution all other laws are tested. A written constitution may prove to be too narrow and too rigid; and our constitution is well within the rule. Among the tendencies now operative is one to stretch the constitution; to find in it and get out of it whatever is wanted. Forms are regarded and observed so far as may be necessary, but really the accepted creed of a particular group of persons prominent and active in American public life, is well expressed in the conundrum: What is the constitution between friends? To some minds that is constitutional which to the same minds appears to be important and desirable. Some get much comfort and a wide, uncharted ocean of promise and opportunity out of the general welfare clause of the constitution. Since one of the declared purposes of the constitution makers is to promote the general welfare therefore these enthusiasts would have it—there must be in the constitution somewhere whatever may be needful to promote the general welfare. I am one of those fellows who believe the good old constitution, much as it merits our reverence should have some touches of the new age.

Speaking of the judiciary Mr. De Armond said: In my judgment, his insight was greatest who saw in the judiciary branch of our government the largest element of danger to our republican institutions. I am well aware that it is and long has been the fashion to view this one of the three co-ordinate branches of our government with a peculiar reverence, entirely lacking in the inspection and contemplation of the other branches, the executive and the legislative. Is not much—too much—of that reverence the adoration of blind faith, and tribute of the subdued intellect, paid through force of habit, and not the free mind offering of unfettered thought?

I am not unmindful of the fact that from time to time, not often excepting this epoch in our nation's history, the lines of executive authority have been extended far. But we have come to a time when the public mind is not concerned so much about the extent or the limit of executive powers as it is about the supposed necessity for what the executive does or attempts in view of the listless, inefficient course of senators and representatives, and the rapid and menacing increase of judicial power, by judicial construction. So steadily and so greatly have the judges magnified their office that a congressional enactment is lightly treated as unconstitutional, according to the judgment, prejudice or whim of the pettiest federal judge in the land. It is not enough to let the responsibility of nullifying the legislative will rest upon the supreme court alone? Why not let laws be laws until solemnly declared by the supreme court not to be laws? Why not deprive every inferior court of the power, or assumed power, to pass upon the constitutionality of acts of congress.

Turning towards conditions in congress Mr. De Armond said:

Once it was possible for a few members of the lower house of congress to block legislation for a good while, by filibustering. Now, one man, the speaker, exercises a veto power greater than that of the president. The speaker enslaves majority and minority indefinitely. Then, no one thought of strangling important measures, and but few lacked the courage to meet issues as they arose. Now it is a fine art in legislative legendry to combine tyranny and cunning as to prevent, from session to session and congress to congress, a vote in the open upon measures which no majority would dare to kill outright. Some day, perhaps, a minority manly enough to fight steadily and resolutely against the one-man power, and for the restoration of the rights of the people's representatives, will awake to find itself in the majority; for the great American people will not suffer their faithful representatives to be permanently or even long the victims of a despotic speaker, carrying out a despotic policy. When the opportunity comes to you, young gentlemen, to deal with czarism don't trouble yourselves about Russia, but direct your efforts against the czarism which flourishes in the house of representatives of our own country.

People's Cure for Stomach Ills

It would be folly to say that a person should always be his own doctor. There are times when one cannot be too quick in consulting a competent and reliable physician, but the fact does remain that there are many ailments that can be cured at home at very little expense. Such remedies can be bought at any first-class drug store for a small sum.

Among the diseases that can be effectively treated at home are such as: indigestion, constipation, dyspepsia, biliousness, flatulency, sour stomach, bloated stomach, sick headache, heartburn, etc. For these troubles there is no better remedy than Dr. Caldwell's Syrup Pepsin, the great herb laxative compound, and among its staunchest friends are the doctors themselves. In such troubles they know they have nothing better to offer than the ingredients contained in this remedy, and hence the liberal ones advise their patients to take it. It often happens that at the commencement of an attack some people hesitate to take such a simple remedy, and run to a doctor, but after trying various doctors they finally take Dr. Caldwell's Syrup Pepsin and have their confidence rewarded by a cure. A good case in point is that of Mr. Herrin, of Lawrenceville, Ill., who suffered from what the doctors called "stomach trouble." He was given up to die by three leading physicians. He had no appetite, couldn't digest what little he did eat, had severe pains in the stomach, and finally, moments when he himself thought he would die. Ultimately he was advised to try Dr. Caldwell's Syrup Pepsin and did so, and now he is entirely cured and has gained 35 pounds. He naturally advises all sufferers from weak stomach to use it. It can be had in 50 cent and $1 bottles, and results are absolutely guaranteed or money is refunded.

Buy a bottle to-day and watch results.

FREE TEST Those wishing to try Dr. Caldwell's Syrup Pepsin can have a free sample bottle sent to their home by addressing the company. This offer is to prove that the remedy will do as we claim, and is only open to those who have never taken it. Send for it if you have any symptoms of stomach, liver or bowel disease. BANK INVESTED IN INDEPENDENT TELEPHONE BONDS.

And Now Finds Itself in Financial Trouble.

Because it invested too freely in the bonds of the Omaha and Tacoma independent telephone companies, the Oregon Trust and Savings bank of Portland is in financial trouble. This is the reason for the difficulty as stated by the Portland Oregonian, one of the leading conservative newspapers of the Pacific slope. The bonds were bought in large quantities by the bank for $95, their par value being $100.

Each bond carried with it a bonus to the bank of $100 in stock. The bank then attempted to dispose of the bonds at par to its purchasers, giving $50 worth of stock as a bonus. This left the bank with $50 worth of stock on each sale of $100 of bonds. It appears, however, that the public was slow to buy these securities, so they congested in the hands of the bank, and as they could not be converted into cash or other quick asset, failure of the bank resulted.

Bankers do not always seem to understand the difference between a well-constructed telephone plant with a proper development of subscribers at proper rates and an improperly constructed plant without an established business on a profitable basis, but they sometimes loan money on the showing made by those operating the property without knowing whether the rates are adequate, whether sufficient expenditure is made upon the plant to maintain it at a proper standard or whether a proper charge is made for depreciation.

THREATS AGAINST KENTUCKY PREACHER.

Rev. M. F. Ham, Known in Paducah, Ordered to Leave New Orleans.

New Orleans, La., April 7.—A threatening letter created excitement here at the recently-erected tabernacle of the Rev. M. F. Ham, a Kentucky evangelist, who has been preaching on "The Sins of Race-track Gambling and the Liquor Traffic." The letter declared the evangelist would be killed unless he left town within forty-eight hours. It was elaborately embellished with drawings of skulls and crossbones, and ended by saying: "Remember that you will never see sunset again in old Kentucky unless you leave immediately." Signed, "Free Thinkers' Society of Texas."

Mr. Ham took the letter seriously, but the police say the letter was sent as a joke.

WAITERS GO ON SUDDEN STRIKE

And Bryan's Denver Banquet Had to be Abandoned.

But Feast of Reason Is Given by Democratic Leader Around Board of Empty Plates.

THE DEMOCRATS ARE JUSTIFIED

Denver, April 7.—William J. Bryan closed a day of strenuous activity by an address to 850 banqueters last night in the spacious El Jebel temple banquet hall, in addition to hundreds of others who filled every seat in the galleries overlooking the main room.

The banquet had been arranged by the Bryan Democratic club of Colorado, and its president, former Congressman John S. Shafford, presided. Everything was in readiness to serve the banquet when half a hundred or more waiters who had been engaged became involved in a dispute with the caterer and went on a strike.

After parleying for an hour or more this portion of the banquet was abandoned and without eating the speech making began.

Bryan was the only speaker. He opened with references to the money question, expressing satisfaction with the fact that by reason of the adoption of many Democratic propositions there is plenty of money.

But the "money question is not the only one upon which our position has been proven correct by the course of events," he said, and then cited the railroad regulation as another. On both of these the Democratic position had been sustained and strengthened, he maintained, by the course adopted by the Republicans.

He criticized Taft's position on various public questions, denounced imperialism and concluded with an expression of confidence in the future prospects of the Democratic party.

SAVE MONEY ON YOUR MAGAZINES

It is a great deal cheaper to place annual subscriptions to several magazines at the same time and order them all together from us, than it is to buy the same magazines singly or subscribe to them separately. Combination club offers are now made by which subscribers to several magazines can secure bargain prices, sometimes getting three or four magazines for the price of one or two. Subscriptions may be sent to different addresses, if desired, and may begin with any month. Let us know what magazines you are taking now or what magazines you want to take next year, and we will quote the combination price, showing saving to be effected.

New Franchise for East Tennessee
Telephone Company is Proposed
By City Solicitor.

WHARF ORDINANCE GOES OVER

A city buyer, to be appointed by the mayor and to receive $100 a month, was authorized by the lower board of the general council by resolution last night. It is the opinion of the councilmen that the city wastes more than $1,200 in the present unsystematic method of purchasing supplies for departments.

By another resolution the ordinance committee was instructed to bring in another ordinance providing a franchise for the East Tennessee Telephone company.

The public wharf ordinance was referred back to the ordinance committee.

The hack ordinance was referred back for copies.

The resolution of Alderman Oehl-schlaeger, permitting saloon keepers to transfer their licenses, was referred to the license committee.

O. E. Potter was granted a license to open a saloon at 737 North Eighth street.

Chief Wood, of the fire department, was instructed to order fire escapes on all buildings to comply with the law.

The contract for the care of marine patients in this city was renewed with Dr. Frank Boyd.

Reports of the city auditor and treasurer and of the collection of fines were received and filed.

Granitoid sidewalks were ordered laid on Water street between Broadway and Kentucky avenue, and on both sides of Jefferson street between Ninth and Eleventh streets. A petition for granitoid walks on the east side of Fifteenth street between Clay and Trimble streets was laid over to secure an ordinance providing for walks on both sides.

The ordinance, permitting the milk and meat inspector to charge not more than 50 cents a head for inspecting cattle in droves of ten or more was adopted.

Cigar manufacturers' license were cut from $50 to $10.

The ordinance requiring the examination of moving picture machine operators was adopted.

The contract with Joseph Wagner to operate the city dump was ratified.

The Thomas C. Leech Investment company asked for a rebate of $25 license, alleged to be illegally paid last year, and the Brown-Joyes Coal company, which remained in business only one month, asked for a refund of the unused portion. Jordan Yates & Sons, a moving picture concern, which never opened, was refunded $575 license money.

The proposition of George Weikel that the city build a sewer through his property on condition that he voluntarily raise the assessment, was tabbed.

The city solicitor was instructed to condemn a public way from Farley Place to Clements street in Mechanicsburg.

Deeds were ordered executed to Fannie Grimmer and James F. Ross for lots in Oak Grove cemetery. The donation of a lot in Oak Grove to the Confederate veterans was ratified.

The appointment of The Sun as the official paper was ratified.

The matter of rewiring the public library was referred to the light committee.

A petition of the ship carpenters and caulkers that the Pittsburg Coal company be compelled to move from the foot of Washington street so that steamboats awaiting their turn to go on the ways could tie there, was referred to the committee.

The Paducah and Cairo Interurban franchise from Eighth street and the city limits over North Eighth, Terrell, North Sixth, Monroe, North Third and Jefferson streets, was referred to the ordinance committee.

Councilman B. W. Cornelson, appointed to fill the vacancy caused by the resignation of Councilman David Flournoy, took his seat. Those present were: Councilmen Lackey, Cornelson, Duvall, Young, Van Meter, Foreman, Kreutzer, Mayer, Ford, Wilson and Bower. In the absence of President Lindsey, Councilman Lackey was chosen to preside.

LEVY'S EASTER SALE A SPLENDID SUCCESS BIG VALUES, TINY PRICES.

The announcement of a sale at Levy's always brings up to the feminine mind pictures of stunning tailored gowns and graceful trailing draperies. Judging from the enthusiasm of the large number of buyers this morning, Mr. Levy's statement that this was the greatest sale of all was true. The ladies appreciated the innovation of offering them big values at low prices instead of the usual "music and flowers." There were Merry Widow Suits, Butterfly Suits, Cornell Dips and all the other new models which are favored for this spring's wear and each one of them found innumerable admirers. And the prices? Truly, they were surprising. In a full page announcement in yesterday's Sun, Mr. Levy explained the fortunate chance which enabled him to make such low prices. In tomorrow's paper there will be another announcement fully as interesting, with more tiny prices. If you know the meaning of the word economy you will watch for it and read it carefully.

FLEET ITINERARY CHANGED.

Stops Will Be Made at Port Harford and Monterey.

Washington, April 7.—Some slight modification in the plans of the parade of the Atlantic battleship fleet from Magdalena bay to San Francisco as announced at the navy department Saturday and which provides for stops at Port Harford and Monterey were made public today. As a result of the changes the fleet will leave Santa Barbara April 29, instead of the 30th, as stated Saturday, and it will go to Port Harford, reaching there the 30th. Only a brief stop will be made at Port Harford, the vessels leaving there on the day of their arrival for Monterey, where they are due May 1. The next day, May 2, they are to leave for

Santa Cruz, reaching there the same day, a day later than originally announced, and will sail from that place for San Francisco on the 5th day of May.

CONFIDENCE

The Basis of All Legitimate Business

All of us have heard more or less of the shaking of public confidence in the recent financial "unpleasantness"—some of us have felt it.

All Previous Records Broken

In the month of March just closed, regardless of conditions, we show a Tremendous Increase

over any previous March in our twenty-two years experience in the carpet business.

The main idea with us has been to deserve the confidence of the trade by maintaining the Quality in Carpets, Rugs, Matting and Linoleum we sell.

In this day Quality-Cutting, Price-Cutting, we have maintained this high ideal of striving to keep the public confidence.

OUR CARPET BUSINESS has been built with this idea of winning confidence—of holding it. That our idea has been right is but slightly attested by this gain in sales.

L. B. Ogilvie & Company

We never misrepresent any article, whether we make the sale or not.
